Overview

• Problems
  – Whiteness as DV, habitus
  – ‘Inclusion’ and the terms of power

• Solutions
  – Self-determination, nation-building
  – Power sharing
‘The Aboriginal Problem’

• How one defines the problem is how you define the solution (Bacchi 2012)

• In improving health outcomes and poor access, is the problem:
  – Aboriginal individual capacity and/or ‘compliance’?
  – Or institutional barriers and the enabling environment? (Gerlach 2012)
  – Or both?

In Australia...

- Whiteness is not a skin colour...
  - it’s a mindset (‘habitus’ of power & privilege)

    (Hartmann 2009; Bordieu 2004)

- Blackness is not a skin colour...
  - it’s living cultures and spirit
An ethnography of whiteness

The 8 White Identities

By Barnor Hesse

There is a regime of whiteness, and there are action-oriented white identities. People who identify with whiteness are one of these. It’s about time we build an ethnography of whiteness, since white people have been the ones writing about and governing Others.

1. White Supremacist
   Clearly marked white society that preserves, names, and values white superiority

2. White Voyeurism
   Wouldn’t challenge a white supremacist; desires non-whiteness because it’s interesting, pleasurable; seeks to control the consumption and appropriation of non-whiteness; fascination with culture (ex: consuming Black culture without the burden of Blackness)

3. White Privilege
   May critique supremacy, but a deep investment in questions of fairness/equality under the normalization of whiteness and the white rule; sworn goal of ‘diversity’

4. White Benefit
   Sympathetic to a set of issues but only privately; won’t speak/act in solidarity publicly because benefiting through whiteness in public (some POC are in this category as well)

5. White Confessional
   Some exposure of whiteness takes place, but as a way of being accountable to POC after; seek validation from POC

6. White Critical
   Take on board critiques of whiteness and invest in exposing/marking the white regime; refuses to be complicit with the regime; whiteness speaking back to whiteness

7. White Traitor
   Actively refuses complicity; names what’s going on; intention is to subvert white authority and tell the truth at whatever cost; need them to dismantle institutions

8. White Abolitionist
   Changing institutions, dismantling whiteness, and not allowing whiteness to reassert itself
Equality vs Equity

Equality is about Sameness
Equality promotes fairness and justice by giving everyone the same thing.
It can only work if everyone starts from the same place.

Equity is about Fairness
Equity gives people access to the same opportunities.
Our differences and/or history can create barriers to participation, so we must first insure equity before we can enjoy equality.
Currently in Australia...

- We do inclusion or equality, not equity or social justice
- We do reconciliation or constitutional recognition, not treaty
- We do charity and benevolence, not social justice
Solutions 1 – Recovery from Genocide

- Walk away – say no
- Heal the violence
- T&R - Admit and atone
- Withdraw and Rebuild
- Re-establish our own terms of power - Aboriginal Terms of Reference (Aunty Lilla Watson)
Solutions 2 – Peace-Making

• Negotiate strategy

• Agreement
  • Constitutional recognition
  • 7th state
  • Treaty
  • Republic
Conclusion

• Current terms of power – whiteness and inclusion – is shit

• We have to say no

• We have to renew our Terms of Reference

• Then we negotiate on equal terms

• We must co-own the Republic
